#ALSIceBucketChallenge

Harris County Federal Credit Union took on the challenge of the latest internet trend in support of bringing awareness to ALS, along with donating to the cause. Harris County Federal Credit Union participated in the Ice Bucket Challenge and even challenged select vendors. Everyone participated in the fun as employees were given two days notice to make a donation for a chance to pour ice water onto a VP's head or the President, Vicki Squires. The total amount contributed to the cause was over $350 along with an Ice Bucket Video which was created and posted online.

Have you seen us at your location?

It can be very difficult to make it downtown, so we're eliminating part of the hassle and stress by coming to you!

We'll be making the rounds at various Harris County locations throughout the year. Talk to your HR coordinator to find out the next time we'll be in your area.
