

CROSS MEMBER TRANSFER AUTHORIZATION

By signing below, you authorize Harris County Federal Credit Union to give you the ability to make transfers from your account, initiated through the credit union’s audio response system and/or internet online access system. Account owners agree that this service is protected by passwords and the account owner bears the sole responsibility to protect their passwords. Account owners understand that their account number may appear on the “transfer to” member’s account statement when transfers are made. All account owners agree to hold Harris County FCU harmless for errors resulting from their use of this service and any failure of the service due to electronic, mechanical or similar problems beyond the control of the credit union.
